TO THE SUPERINTENDING SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND CITIZENS OF SOUTH BERWICK:

I herewith submit my annual report of the schools of the town.

There have been four changes in the teaching force since school closed last June. These positions have been filled by experienced teachers. We were indeed fortunate in keeping the rest of our very efficient teachers and having the new ones fit so well into our system. We are also fortunate to have so many capable substitutes available in our community.

Good teachers are very scarce at present and will be even more so when schools open in the fall. Salaries which were ample at the beginning of this year now look smaller and I believe will have to be increased another year if we are to keep an efficient type of teacher in our schools. There is a bill in the legislature to increase the state aid to towns. This should be passed as it will greatly help the towns in these abnormal times. Many of our best teachers are going to states where salaries are higher, some are going to better paid defense work and some are joining the armed forces. With the smaller number of boys and girls in attendance at our normal schools the situation is not too pleasant to contemplate.

There are some school positions in communities the size of South Berwick which this town does not have. I refer to physical education, manual training and home economics. Would it be possible for the town school department to cooperate with the trustees of the academy and provide this very beneficial training for our boys and girls? If not, could we unite with an adjoining town to secure teachers of these courses which would be so valuable to our young people? All three of these positions are highly subsidized by the state. Our cooperative plan in supervision, school nursing and music instruction seems to work very well. The plan might go a bit farther.

Our conveyance has been well handled this year by our excellent bus drivers. However, some time has been lost because of road conditions. Perhaps this is the best we can expect during a war period. We ought to be certain the situation cannot be bettered. Our transportation costs are high but no higher than in other towns which contract with individuals for this service as we do. I would suggest that we consider owning our busses as soon as they can be purchased. Towns that do their own transporting find it much more practical and economical. The state favors this program so much that they will assist the town in purchasing the equipment and will pay annually an amount for depreciation.

The Central School building is not in poor condition but if a few repairs are made each year it will soon be in the best condition. At some future date the heating and ventilating plant should receive attention. Seats in one end of the building were recently changed to provide proper lighting. Some painting was done this year and I hope more can be done next summer. Weather-stripping the doors and windows would make the rooms more comfortable and also cut down fuel costs.

We were pleased to have a part in community canning last summer and hope the project will be continued another year. This project has many values. It helps the individual, the food problem and our school lunch program. Just the ability to work out a community project of this size is a value in itself.

The school lunch program has been carried on again this year with excellent results. I am sure many have become acquainted with its benefits. Since its inception the labor costs have been carried by W. P. A. This assistance has now been discontinued. If we are to carry on the program the town will have to assist with the labor costs. A. M. A. will continue to supply surplus commodities and also make possible the purchase of some foods not surplus, if a full meal is supplied. Your school committee hopes you will see that this program is made possible another year by making a small appropriation to provide the cost of preparation.

It has been a pleasure to work with you this year. I wish to thank the teachers, town officials, parents and citizens who have cooperated with me so completely.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. H. BEARD,
Superintendent of Schools.

REPORT OF CENTRAL SCHOOL

TO SUPERINTENDENT GEORGE H. BEARD:

I herewith submit the annual report of Central School:

Due to the changing of principals at Christmas time, this report will be made through expedience, on activities and necessities after the holiday season.

Because of the constant changing of personnel in the three upper grades, the sixth grade was eliminated from the departmental plan of teaching. This did away with some of the confusion and one of the problems which was creating some disturbance in the exchange of classes by the teachers.

In times such as these and for adequate training for the future two new courses should be offered to the upper grades—Manual Training for the boys and Domestic Arts for the girls. In such an up to date school as this could be, these two subjects are a prime requisite. The two past principals of this school have also pleaded for these courses. Now that times are better, this should be the year.

Textbooks in general science should be provided for, especially in the upper grades, before another year passes. The children of this community are missing too much of the fundamentals of science which are so vital in our life today and the new life of the scientific future in which they will live.

A slight increase in enrollment and the deterioration of textbooks have led to a situation whereby new sets and replacements are needed especially, again, in the three upper grades. A plan of yearly replacement may eliminate such a condition in the future. The textbooks assigned to each pupil have had no means of checking in the past. Such a condition fails to create a sense of responsibility on the part of each pupil for their care. Another year will find this condition remedied and a resulting decrease in the rate of textbook destruction will surely result.

The music program has been carried out as in the past. Mr. Firth succeeded Mr. Gay with the band. A system of private lessons, during school time has been adopted, to keep the band system alive.

To increase pupil interest and participation in school affairs, a program of student-interests and activities has been worked out with a student-picked committee directing and planning its program. A winter carnival, social programs, regular general assemblies have been planned and are still being arranged—for a complete and varied yearly schedule.

The scrap drive, held last fall, brought in a goodly sum, part of which has been used to purchase playground equipment. More will be purchased, for the lower grades, as soon as this equipment is made available.

The teachers have voted to use some of their school fund money in building and stocking a school library. Mrs. Obrey was appointed chairman of the committee. Work has begun, under her supervision, in renovating the spare room, opposite the sixth grade, for this library. My office, and its limited space, its dark and cheerless appearance, was not an ideal place to generate the reading habit among the pupils. Spring will find this project our outstanding contribution to the school this year.

In times such as these the average attendance of the pupils is apt to drop—due to the inability on the part of the parents to hire any help they might need; or, because of the extra hours they are working at their jobs during the present emergency, they call on their children to help out more at home. Another cause is the general unrest and, at times, a let up in the regular rules governing the modern home. Though this is not so in all cases, it is well for all of us to remember that these are only temporary times and it still is the duty all parents owe to their children's and country's future to see that these children keep up regular and punctual attendance in school.

A great progressive step would be taken if, by some means, Central School could have for its use a sound movie projector. Such excellent educational films are available, at no cost whatsoever, which would add more life and value to the curriculum. Not only would the movies prove their worth but also the sound system hookup, which comes as part of such equipment, could be used in their social times; the record player would lead to a delightful course in music appreciation. Such equipment would increase the teaching staff by two members, namely—visual education and auditory educational methods. I, personally, taught where such equipment was purchased—a smaller and less prosperous community than this, and the results obtained, in the first year alone, were beyond the superintendent's greatest expectations.

I wish to thank all members of the teaching staff for their splendid cooperation. Special thanks must go to the older members of the faculty who, with their patience and wisdom, guided me through my first few incubation weeks with them — though loaded down with a more than full program of their own.

The efficient work of our school nurse, Mrs. Nutter, our school lunch staff, Mrs. O'Neil and Mrs. Lane, must be mentioned. They carry on two important functions of our program here. And, pertaining to the latter, now that government support of the hot lunch plan has been limited, I feel sure that the value of its work has been made plain enough to the voters that they will surely provide funds for its continuance.

Mr. Warren, who spends more time here than any of us, has gone way beyond the many duties of his own in order to help and cooperate with us. He, also, deserves special credit.

With this excellent cooperation of the staff and the added cooperation of all others concerned—the officials, the parents, the pupils, Central School should take great strides toward being the ideal setting for the fundamental training in citizenship that your children deserve.

Respectfully submitted,

RAYMOND R. HILLMAN,
Principal.

REPORT FOR FOGG MEMORIAL LIBRARY

"This Is Our War:
Let's Read About It."

With this, our second year of the war we find many changes in the character of library work, with all American institutions reorganizing for war and libraries must do no less. This means a change of emphasis and the aim of Fogg Memorial Library is to fall in line with this readjustment.

We are maintaining a Victory section or miniature Information Center. The literature of the war is coming in daily and we may offer only a small part but on this victory table may be found not only books of information concerning all phases of the war, but maps, pamphlets and pictures are supplied with many posters in evidence.

The pressure of war demands that librarians put this material for the benefit of the public with this slogan: "This Is Our War: Let's Read About It," and we fall in line with such books as Last Train from Berlin, You Can't Do Business With Hitler, What the Citizen Should Know About the Navy, Berlin Diary, I Speak for China, Blood Sweat and Tears, West Point Today, Annapolis Today, Arc Welding, Let the Record Speak, Night Flight, Everybody's Aviation Guide, Aviation Cadet, Wings Over West Point, Sky Hostess and many others.

Pamphlets such as Education for Victory, Official Bi-Weekly of the United States Office of Education, Soviet Russia Today, United Nations Discussion Guide, America, My Country, I Am An American, Navy Wings, War Jobs for Women, School of Attendant Nursing, Pre-Flight Aeronautics in Secondary Schools, Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, Among Us (International Relations), How to Live on a Reduced War Budget and many others.

Several of the students who have joined The High School Victory Corps have registered at the library for library work for which they will receive credit and emblems. These students have been helpful in the planning and arrangement of the Victory table.

We have furnished books to the public schools for collateral reading, to the Rollinsford Grade School and South Berwick students at Nason College have used our library freely for research work and reading. The South Berwick Study Group have made good use of our Maine History Section in their continued study of our state. We issued our annual bulletin in December and wish to thank all who assisted in making this publication possible; these are for distribution at the library. The books and magazines which have been presented from time to time by our interested friends and which have proved most useful, have been gratefully received and we are now looking forward with appreciation to our annual supply of the spring books from the Town Appropriation which will enable us to continue with our general book program and concerted war effort.

Respectfully submitted,

LOUISE DICKERSON LEIB,

Librarian, Fogg Memorial Library.
